Form 990, Part III, Line 1 - Organization Mission

HARC's mission is to:

- Provide independent analysis on energy, air and water issues to people seeking scientific answers.
- Operate as a research hub for programs finding solutions for a sustainable future.
- Conduct our work in a principled and agile manner.
- Contribute to a sustainable future in which people thrive and nature flourishes.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a - Program Service Accomplishments

HARC's George P. Mitchell Energy Program bridges across cleaner energy options, environmental sensitivity, and economic feasibility. Making the transition to clean energy will require a coordinated effort led by non-partisan entities. HARC's continued service to the Gulf Coast hinges on guiding policymakers and industry leaders towards improvements in areas such as energy efficiency; low impact oil and gas exploration; solar energy development; and combined heat and power projects.

The mission of the Clean Energy Program is to accelerate development and adoption of clean energy technologies, services, and policies that enhance regional sustainability. HARC bridges the gaps between basic research in energy services and technologies and their commercial implementation by taking the lead in convening stakeholders and in crafting and executing research, verification, and validation.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b - Program Service Accomplishments

HARC's Air Program includes efforts in several areas: air quality research and management; air emission reduction technologies; emission monitoring technology and policy; and regional impacts of and adaptations to climate change. Our air research program is multi-disciplinary, multi-institutional, objective and non-partisan. Our work on air issues synthesizes rigorous research and policy assessments in a dynamic way that has become a HARC trademark in the region.

HARC is helping Texas improve the science behind its air quality policymaking through its role as Research Management Organization to the Texas Environmental Research Consortium. This initiative has become a nationally recognized process by which key economic, environmental, and political stakeholders in the Houston-Galveston region work with the research community to better understand regional air science, speed the adoption of air emissions control technologies, and make informed policy decisions.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c - Program Service Accomplishments

HARC's Water Program emphasizes water quality and quantity; watershed management; biodiversity and ecological function; and ecosystem informatics. HARC compiles and analyzes numerous databases describing environmental quality; biological and water resources; and aquatic and terrestrial habitats. Integration, analysis, and dissemination of information regarding important water issues is considered key to advancing more sustainable management of coastal watersheds, water supplies, and water quality.

Our approach is interdisciplinary, integrating ecological, physical and social sciences with information technology. HARC compiles and manages numerous databases describing environmental quality, biological and water resources, and aquatic and terrestrial habitats in its region. Information technology tools and geographic information systems allow HARC to translate the data into information through the development of environmental indicators, statistical results, spatial and temporal analysis and to analyze changes in ecosystem and water resources.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 2 - Business or Family Relationship of Officers, Directors, Etc.

J. Todd Mitchell and B. Greg Mitchell have a family relationship.

Spiros Vassilakis has a business relationship with the Mitchell Family Corporation.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 11b - Form 990 Review Process

Prior to signing the Form 990 the Secretary and Treasurer of the Board reviews it with the President and VP/COO. A copy is distributed to the remaining Board Members prior to filing. The Form is provided to the audit committee of the Board of Directors for their review and discussed at the next Audit Committee meeting.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c - Explanation of Monitoring and Enforcement of Conflicts

There is a Board conflict of interest policy which each board member follows and it allows for the board member to disclose in written form whatever the conflict or perceived conflict is. This is given to the Chairman of the Audit committee for review and determination. A full disclosure is presented at the next board meeting. Whenever there is a conflict there is a restriction imposed on the person with such conflict which prohibits them from participating in both the deliberations and decision regarding that transaction or item.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15a - Compensation Review & Approval Process - CEO & Top Management

The Board Chair evaluates the compensation of the CEO in coordination with the Boards' Compensation Committee annually. While HARC focuses on comparable nonprofit organizations in our area to benchmark pay, we also understand that the market for executive talent may be broader than this group. Market information from two additional market segments, private foundations, and published not-for-profit compensations surveys may be used as a supplement. In addition, HARC may also collect other published survey data, when appropriate, for for-profit organization employees with specific functional competencies. The Board's Compensation Committee reviews all compensation prior to effective day.
